Customer: Chemical Abstracts Service

Dear Ms. Udalova,

My name is Adriana Ridolfo, and I work in the Books and Journals Acquisition Department at Chemical Abstracts Service. As you may know, Chemical Abstracts Service, a not-for-profit division of The American Chemical Society, provides a valuable indexing service to researchers worldwide. We provide pointers to the original literature via our databases and products. We review and intellectually index thousands of major scientific journals and patents from 63 patent authorities, providing pointers to the new and novel science disclosed in them.

I have checked our records and can confirm that the journal Bashkirskii Khimicheskii Zhurnal (ISSN: 0869-8406) is currently included in the CAS databases.

Please let me know if you have any additional questions or concerns.

Best regards,

Adriana Ridolfo
